COMMON GROUND

Tuesdays 8:00 PM

9/6 Churches and the Peace Movement: New Look at an Old Problem. In recent years numerous Roman Catholic and Protestant church bodies have decried the arms race and called for new disarmament efforts. Why now? How does this concern fit into traditional church positions on war and peace?

9/13 Churches and the Peace Movement: What Can They Do? Participants discuss various proposals for protesting the arms race. They also address the issue of how deeply churches can get involved in a political issue.

9/20 Space: Tool for Development? Four space experts discuss the potential use of space technology as a means for speeding economic development around the world. They also identify the limits of such technology and the factors which constrain international cooperation on the use of space.

9/27 China: A Third Superpower? Three scholars in the area of Chinese studies discuss the role of the People's Republic as a military, economic, and political power in this century.

CARIBBEANA: Part 5

Wednesday (9/28) 8:00 PM

The series is hosted by Von Martin, Washington's longtime "Voice of the Caribbean," and written by Pat DiRubbo and award-winning producer Judi Moore Smith. Narration and music combine with on-location interviews with historians, musicians, Calypsonians, and writers--creating journeys to Trinidad, Tobago, Jamaica and Dominica. Martin is a son of a Caribbean, and is at home with Calypso, Reggae and Cadence.

THE AMERICAN PROSE SERIES FROM KOPN: Readings by and Interviews with Modern American Authors

Wednesdays - 9:00 PM

9/14 Mary Lee Settle reads from her work Beulah Quintet, including a speech by organizer Mother Jones and an old man's recollection of the history of an old coal town. The interview covers the structure of Beulah Quintet, the historical research behind it, the evolution of Settle's writing style, and commentary on modern writers who value security above artistic endeavor.

9/28 In this program, N. Scott Momaday recreates his immediate and ancestral Kiowa history and his boyhood in the Jemez pueblo. He reads from Work in Progress, House Made of Dawn, and his autobiography, The Names. He also explains what he believes to be intrinsically Indian about his work and vision, including the concept of literature as sacred text.
